

WOMEN OPPOSE FAIR MIDWAYS

W. C. T. U. Condemns Them in Strong Resolutions.

CONVENTION HAS ADJOURNED

MRS. J. S. GORDON OF OGDEN ELECTED PRESIDENT.

The election of officers for the ensuing year, the passing of resolutions condemning midways at fairs and the use of spirituous liquors and a pledge to use every honorable means to suppress the increasing prevalence of the use of tobacco and cigarettes by young boys by enforcing the new law, were the features of the closing day of the Utah Women's Christian Temperance Union meeting. It was the thirteenth annual convention, which began Friday morning in Phillips' Congregational church.

Every session was largely attended. The interest manifested in all work of the union and pledges so readily and fervently made to continue the fight against the liquor traffic have greatly encouraged the members to labor with renewed zeal during the coming year.

Resolutions of Convention.

The resolutions passed by the union, as reported by the resolution committee, follow:

"We, the members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Utah, in convention assembled, gratefully acknowledge the goodness of God and reaffirm our belief in our Heavenly Father, as king of our cause, and His word should be the foundation of laws; therefore, trusting in Him for guidance, we hereby

"Resolved, First, That we stand unalterably on our principles of total abstinence from all alcoholic drinks and stand pledged to promote every interest for the suppression of the sale of intoxicants;

"Resolved, Second, That we will earnestly endeavor to promote the observance of the Lord's day, accepting it as a gift of God to man;

"Resolved, Third, That because of the increasing prevalence of the use of tobacco and cigarettes by young boys, we will, by every possible means, use our influence for the enforcement of the law recently passed;

"Resolved, fourth, That we believe in the one standard of morality for men and women, 'the white life for two';

"Resolved, fifth, That we are opposed to the midway feature of fairs; the pictures and the various alluring advertising methods usually employed, and the shows themselves in which the female form is in any way exhibited or alluded to;

"Resolved, sixth, That we recommend active work among the children, believing that the training of our young will result in better citizens and cleaner laws for the future generation;

"Resolved, seventh, That we make special effort during the coming year to enlist the co-operation of the Christian men of Utah by securing them as honorary members;

"Resolved, eighth, That we pledge ourselves again to total prohibition, realizing that only through this avenue can this Christian land of ours reach the greatness which it may reasonably expect by having the purest and best citizens;

"Respectfully submitted:

"MRS. E. C. SHEPARD,

"MRS. HOBBS,

"MRS. M. CRITCHLOW."

Features of the Closing Day.

The devotional services which marked the opening of the morning session of the last day were led by Miss Lillian M. Phelps. Then came the report of the credentials committee, roll call of delegates, response with passage of scripture and the address of Mrs. J. S. Gordon, the president. It was followed by reports from the corresponding secretary and treasurer.

"Is There Further Need of the W. C. T. U. in Utah?" was the theme of a paper read by Mrs. P. A. Russell, which was followed by a general affirmative discussion. The annual election of officers came next, with a noontide prayer by Miss Mary Nielson of Mt. Pleasant.

Rev. John Richelson led the devotional services after the noon recess. The minutes of the morning session were read and approved, when Rev. J.

BREAK THE FAST.

The Morning Meal Should Not Be Missed.

After a night's fast the stomach should have some food for breakfast to maintain mind and body during the morning. It should not be a heavy meal, but wise selection will pay immensely.

Young Los Angeles woman says: "For years until I used Grape-Nuts I have never been able to eat breakfast for eating in the morning was always followed by terrible sick headaches, and my stomach has always been delicate."

"Some time ago a friend urged me to try Grape-Nuts food, and I began eating it every morning. As a result of its use I have gained eleven pounds and the headaches have disappeared entirely, and my weak stomach has become normal and strong. All my food digests and I now perform my daily duties with a renewed cheerfulness and energy. Evidently I had been eating the wrong food; but Grape-Nuts soon put me right." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Mrs. Demies T. S. Denison,
President General Federation Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Gleson S. Kinney,
Elected President Utah Federation Women's Clubs.

E. Carver of Ogden delivered an address on prohibitory laws, as did also Miss Phelps of Ogden. They were interspersed with music by Mrs. John Richelson.

Then came the answering of queries placed in the question box, followed by committee reports. After they had been accepted Mrs. J. S. Gordon, the new president, was consecrated. The minutes of the afternoon were read, adopted and the convention adjourned for a year with a prayer.

RACED IN THE MUD

Three Events Pulled Off at Fair at Last Moment to Please the Crowd.

There were races at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon, but they were not taken very seriously. They consisted only of three running events that were gotten off as it were, on the spur of the moment. At 2 o'clock the condition of the track was so muddy that Manager Bransford and his associates decided not to have any races. At 3 o'clock the grand stand and bleachers were full of people, and the sun, which had not shown its head for two days, was smiling benignly from a featureless sky. Mr. Bransford said: "Look at that crowd of people! We must give them something or they will be throwing bricks at us."

So the horsemen got busy and at 4 o'clock started the first bunch of speedsters. The big triangular harrow had been run around the track a few times to let the sun permeate through the mud, and while it did some good, there were still slimy, muddy puddles at occasional intervals all around the course, and it kept the horses fairly busy dodging them.

Aurica, in the second race, floundered around like a porpoise and came under the wire with the blood flying from an ugly slash on one of his front legs where he had corked himself while struggling through the mire.

And a three-quarters of a mile dash, in view of the condition of the track, the time was very slow. The entries in the first race, the quarter dash, were: Ratler, Goldie and May Flower. The odds were one to one. Ratler, the favorite, was a good guess for that navy blue animal won out almost a length in twenty-six seconds. The quarter dash was scooped up by Honest Keogh's handsome little mare, Mollie Allstott. The last race, the half-mile dash, was won by Caligula II, Baldo and Saxby. The first named captured it in a gallop.

The summary:

First race, quarter-mile dash—Ratler first, Goldie second, May Flower third. Time—38 seconds.

Second race, three-quarter mile dash—Honest John first, Mollie Allstott second, Aurica third. Time—1:25.

Third race, half-mile dash—Caligula II, Baldo second, Saxby third. Time—1:10.

Manager Bransford states that Monday's races will be an exceptionally strong card. There will be five events, three of which will be trotting.

BUCHANAN IS AT THE HELM

President of the Iron Workers Is Re-elected.

THE VOTE WAS VERY CLOSE

CONVENTION GOES TO TORONTO NEXT YEAR.

Kansas City, Oct. 3.—Frank Buchanan of Chicago won a final victory over Samuel Parks and his following this afternoon when he was re-elected president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, over Hugh F. Donnelly of Albany, N. Y., by a vote of 43 to 40. After the election, and while Mr. Parks and his delegates from New York were hurrying from the hall to catch their train for the east the regular order of business was suspended, while the convention unanimously passed a resolution pledging full support to local No. 2, the New York walking delegate's union, and he departed amid a storm of applause. Parks claims a majority of the executive board. Toronto, Canada, was chosen as the place of the next convention.

On First Ballot.

Mr. Buchanan was elected on the first ballot, and when the result was announced he was cheered lustily.

Samuel Parks, sinking closer into his chair, heard the result without comment, except to say, "I lose." A personal encounter had been predicted if he should lose, but after the applause for the successful candidate had ended, Parks and his followers made no move to make a counter demonstration. Instead Parks quietly counseled those about to "hurry the rest through."

The other officers elected were William McLean, Kansas City, a Buchanan adherent, first vice president; John McNamara, Cleveland, Parks candidate, second vice president; J. W. Johnston of New York City, secretary-treasurer. The only real contest aside from that on the first ballot was for the retreating-treasurer, the Buchanan crowd naming James L. Melton of Pittsburgh. Johnstone, the present incumbent, who is a Parks man, was elected by a vote of 43 to 28.

The executive board as selected, follows: H. F. Burke, Philadelphia; J. Oakley, Pittsburgh; John Pollock, Newark, N. J.; and J. J. Barry, St. Louis.

Cheers For Parks.

After the election of the executive board the convention suspended business and adopted the following with hurrah, many of the delegates mounting their chairs and cheering for Mr. Parks and his delegation as they departed.

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this convention that the full support of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers be given to local No. 2 in its struggle against the employment of the New York City, and that the president and executive board are hereby instructed to use their best efforts to this end."

Mr. Parks left for Buffalo over the Western at 4 o'clock this evening. Before boarding the train he gave the following statement to the Associated Press representative:

"I am very well satisfied with the actions of the convention. I came here and defeated the interests of No. 2, and to protest against the high-handed and autocratic action of the president in suspending No. 2, and otherwise encouraging the enemies of local No. 2. Every issue has been fought out on its merits, and in every case my position has been sustained. An instance of this is the action of the convention in suspending No. 2, and in a few instances have ever gone further, namely, the stand on the agreement between the inside and the outside men, and on the question of the employment of the New York City. I am in the favor in which No. 2 stands in the international association is the first in instructing the executive board to use their best efforts to this end."

The status of the inside or shop men was finally decided when the convention adopted an amendment to the constitution giving the inside men representation at the ratio of eight inside to ten outside men. The settlers asked question of many years standing.

NAUVOO LEGION.

The monthly meeting of the Nauvoo Legion will be held in the old armory hall on Tuesday, Oct. 13, instead of Oct. 6, on account of conference being held on that day. There will also be a committee meeting held in the same hall on Tuesday, Oct. 13, instead of a meeting. A full attendance is requested, as the election of officers will take place and other important business will have to be completed.

TOWN RUINED BY FIERCE TORNADO

St. Charles, Minn., Levelled With the Ground.

SIX BODIES FOUND SO FAR

CITIZENS PARALYZED BY EXTENT OF DISASTER.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 3.—A tornado struck St. Charles, Minn., at 2:19 p. m. today and ruined the town. Six persons are reported killed and a large number are reported injured. The dead so far as known are:

John Evans.

Will Evans.

William Pittman.

Murphy.

Two elevators, the principal furniture store in town and the big flour mill are completely wrecked, while the telegraph office and sawmill are partially wrecked.

Six Bodies Found.

From meagre information obtained, partly by telephone and partly by telegraph, it is learned that the bodies of six of the killed have been found, but only four names were given. It is feared that there are a number of other victims. One man was killed in the street by being struck by a plowshare hurled through the air by the force of the storm.

All the telegraph and telephone wires were levelled at the first blast of the storm and communication with other cities was cut off. It is estimated that 100 houses were demolished in the path of the storm. Communication was established between this city and St. Charles by telephone by a crew of linemen of the American Electric company, which happened to be in that vicinity, and the foreman of the crew gave the first information of the four dead persons named.

Survivors Horrified.

Utter confusion reigned in the town. The streets are filled with wreckage of buildings, trees and farm implements which were blown through the air. The horror of the affair has practically paralyzed action for the time being on the part of the citizens, who stood awestricken at the awful devastation by the elements. It was some time before crews began to clear away the debris, which, it is feared, may cover many a sickening sight.

St. Charles is a village of 1,500 inhabitants on the western boundary of Wisconsin county, and is one of the oldest settlements in the state.

The storm which struck that town with such disastrous results swept a wide section of country down the river from the New York Twin Cities to the Minnesota boundary, doing much damage and cutting off telegraph communication between the Twin Cities and Chicago for a time.

STORM IN WISCONSIN.

Two Killed, Three Fatally Injured and Many Badly Hurt.

La Crosse, Wis., Oct. 3.—Two persons were killed, three fatally injured and a score of others badly hurt in a tornado which swept Independence, Wis., and the surrounding country this afternoon. Many farm buildings in the storm's path were torn down. At Eagle valley, north of here, the Reformed church was destroyed and houses on the prairie surrounding were demolished. Several small buildings were overturned at La Crosse, but no fatalities were reported.

San Francisco, Oct. 3.—M. J. Sellman, who recently opened a liquor store in this city, has been arrested on a charge of obtaining $250 by false pretenses from H. L. Rea, an internal revenue and customs broker. He went to Rea yesterday, stated that he wished to open an account and would place a certain amount to the credit of Rea & Co. Mr. Rea accompanied him to the Italian-American bank, where Sellman deposited a draft for $1,500 drawn upon J. Bassett, Jr., of St. Louis, whom he said was his uncle. Half of this amount was to be placed to the credit of Rea & Co. After returning to the broker's office Sellman said he was short of ready money and borrowed $250 in cash. Later Rea became suspicious and telegraphed to Bassett, who replied that he would not cash Sellman's draft for any amount. Thereupon Sellman was arrested and lodged in prison. He is said to be well known in Portland and Seattle.

CONFERENCE BEGINS TODAY

President of Twelve Apostles to Be Selected.

F. M. LYMAN SPOKEN OF

VACANCY IN THAT BODY IS ALSO TO BE FILLED.

From stakes of Zion in all portions of the civilized world have come representatives to attend the semi-annual general conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, which will begin today in the tabernacle. Especially from Utah, Idaho, Wyoming and Arizona is the attendance heavy, while there are a number from Canada on the north and Mexico on the south. Cheap rates are in effect on the railroads, and the result is seen in the crowds which swarm up and down the principal streets and foregather on the corners where the street cars hesitate. They all reported work given to "play the fiddler."

Every one of the fifty handbooks operated by O'Leary had its quota of bets on the race. It is said that the opposing combination distributed money around town to be placed on the killing.

The present conference will be called upon to fill two important positions. One is that of president of the twelve apostles. The other is the position of apostle. Both of these places were made vacant by the death of Apostle Brigham Young. It is generally accepted that Apostle Francis M. Lyman will succeed to the presidency of the twelve, but the identity of the new apostle is not so certain.

George A. Smith is prominently mentioned for the position—in fact, nobody else has been publicly mentioned in connection with the place. It is believed by those in close touch with the situation that the place will go to Mr. Smith if to anybody in Salt Lake.

Relief Society Conference.

There was a large attendance at the semi-annual conference of the relief society, which met at 10 o'clock yesterday morning in assembly hall. Each stake was represented by its president or some authorized representative. Mrs. Bathsheba W. Smith, the president of the society, delivered the principal address. She extended a warm greeting to the members and commented favorably upon the work which the society is accomplishing.

Reports were received from the following persons on stake work: Mrs. Mary Pomeroy of Maricopa stake, which works among Indians; Alvilda Dickson of Big Horn; Mrs. Rebecca Standing of Alpine; Mrs. M. J. Horne of Salt Lake; Mrs. Call of Bannock; Mrs. C. C. Shepard of Beaver; Mrs. Page of Nebo; Mrs. Selma Phillips of St. Joseph. They all reported work progressing favorably.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Maggie Hall gave a vocal selection.

TILLMAN TRIAL.

Lexington, S. C., Oct. 3.—Witnesses who were on the street at the time of the shooting of Editor Gonzales testified in the Tillman trial today.

C. M. Lide of Columbia, one of the witnesses, said: "When I got about the front of the bill board next to the transfer office I saw Mr. Tillman throw up his arm, and I did not see where he drew his pistol from."

Solicitor Thurmond announced this afternoon that the state practically was ready to close, but desired to pass the case until Tuesday. Adjourned until Tuesday.

CHARGED WITH LARCENY.

St. Louis, Oct. 3.—The grand jury which concluded its work today and was discharged handed down the indictment of Major Hugh C. Dennis, president of the Rialto Grain & Security company, whose offices were raided several days ago on the order of Circuit Attorney Folk. Dennis is charged on four counts with grand larceny.

LIPTON LEAVES CHICAGO.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Sir Thomas Lipton left for New York today over the Erie railroad. His train has the right of way, and an effort will be made to break the record to New York.
